

AMERICA at HOME

Hey, what's for dinner tonight? Who's in your family? Do you have world's cutest kids, weirdest pets, funkiest grandma or the coolest bedroom?

JOIN US!! SHOW US! For one amazing week from Sept. 17-23 the best photographers in the world – and that means YOU! – will shoot photos in all 50 States to capture a wild sprawling digital time capsule of the millions ways we create our own version of Home, Sweet, Home. Executed by the same folks who created the legendary "Day in the Life" photo book series and sponsored by IKEA, the very BEST pictures will be published in an unforgettable coffee table book with YOUR own picture on the cover (if you'd like).

There so many ways to take part:

Monday THE BIG TOUR

Show us exactly what makes your home your castle. Capture the essence and emotions -- ALL the nooks, crannies and grannies – and don't forget the iguana if you've got one.

Tuesday MORNING RUSH

Breakfast of blueberries and walnuts? A bracing shower? Yoga on the patio? Packing up the kid's lunches for school? Let the world share your hectic sunrise routines.

Wednesday MID-DAY MADNESS

Who's home? Come one, come all. Show us your dashing kids, lovely friends or even that one strange black-crowned night heron who just built a nest in the front yard maple tree.

Thursday DINNER TIME

Lasagna again? Yum! Inexplicable Jello salads? Chinese take away? From a microwave or Dutch Oven? Pick up your plates and show us! Be sure to get the family chef in action.

Friday YOUR SANCTUARY

When it's been one of those days (or weeks), where do YOU escape to cool out, re-boot or get away? Don't be bashful; share your sacred space with us.

Saturday HOME TREASURES

Your grandmother's wedding ring? Your uncle's false teeth? Your precious collection of snow globes? Bring'em out and let us all gaze in wonder!

Sunday BEDTIME RITUALS

What do YOU do before you hit the hay? Finish a crossword puzzle? Look under the bed for monsters? Fix your cup of hot cocoa with a shot of something? ZZZZ-ZZZ-ZZ.

General

Any time. Any day. Photograph the things that turn your house into your home. Trophy wall? Family altar? Basement train wonderland? Kids artwork on the fridge? Cat asleep in the sink again? All the junk mail that's collected for the week? Snap away and send it in!
